Miss Anne Whitney
Shelburne

New Hampshire

Tuesday, and since you confer the privilege, Dr.
Peterson and I will shelter with you for one night.

We cannot now be accurate as to the hour of arrival, but will telephone in the course of the forenoon on Tuesday. And if it will not-tax you too much to secure the two rooms at the village boarding house, for our friend Miss Bladen.

Dear Miss Whitney

"E varrei dire
e non so ch'io mi dica".
This delightful thing seems really about to happen.
I have just telegraphed you that we will start on Monday morning. We should arrive at Shelburne in the afternoon I.

and our little girl Frederika, we shall be still further grateful - Do not, I beg of you, alter the arrangement for them in any way - Even if we had no conscience about flooding your house, we should still be selfish and wish to have you as much as possible to ourselves -

Dr. Peterson joins me in best and warmest thanks and regards of every sort. We are both so sorry to have missed Mrs. Dargan -

Your telegram did reach me on Monday - I ought to have spoken of it - The itinerary you sent will be most helpful - We look forward to the journey through your mountains and to the journey's end!

With love - yes gladly - yours

Antoinette Rodan Peterson
